

Successful organisations find it incredibly difficult to change. In fact, their success is often their biggest barrier to change for their entire business model, operations and culture are all automatically geared towards the continuation of the successful status quo.

“Success breeds complacency. Complacency breeds failure. Only the paranoid survive.”

Andy Grove, CEO & Founder, Intel.

However, if you are not leading change, you are not leading anything. You are just managing the status quo. The ability to lead change is a critical skill for every successful leader – and leadership team. Every successful strategy requires change, and change has never been more critical to business than it is today. Due to advances in numerous technologies, the way we work has changed – forever. Entire industries are being disrupted. No organisation will remain untouched.

Change is inevitable. Successful change isn’t. Leaders need to be able to take their organisations in new directions swiftly and decisively. The organisation that is able to seek out and embrace change will thrive. This precisely what business leaders must help their people to do – for two reasons:

1. Only your people can deliver the change your business requires, and
2. 88% of change initiatives, and business strategies, fail.¹

Leading change is tough.

Leaders not only have to embrace change themselves, they also have to lead their people to embrace change and deliver. However, 7 out of 8 leadership teams are not equipped to succeed.

This workshop will introduce leaders to the toolset and approach they need to build a culture that embraces change and to lead one of the most difficult assignments in business: the leadership of successful and sustainable change.

Every participant receives a copy of Campbell’s acclaimed book, ‘The Change Catalyst: secrets to successful and sustainable change’ (Wiley 2017), 2018 Business Book of the Year.

“Essential reading for CEOs and leaders of change.” Martin Davis, CEO Kames Capital

“One of the most informative and influential books you will read this year.”

The HR Director Magazine

“Packed with the insight, tools and know-how needed to make sure your next change is the 1 in 8 that succeeds; pick up this book.” Institute of Leadership & Management

“The Change Catalyst’ is well-written and a pleasure to read. It is full of insight and anecdotes to help organisations transform for the better.” Association of MBAs

“The Change Catalyst is a book that frankly absolutely anyone in business should read. The writing is clear, clean, direct and simply beautiful. I found myself stopping and re-reading paragraphs just for the sheer pleasure of it.” Alison Jones, Head Judge 2018 Business Book Awards.

Workshop Outline

The content is tailored for each organisation & audience and can be delivered in ½ day, 1 day or 2 day versions.

PART 1: CHANGE IS INEVITABLE

Exploration of the plethora of personal, social and technological change headed our way (AI, IOT, avatars, Blockchain, driverless cars, immunotherapy, ...) and how they will change our lives forever.

Change in your organisation

Interactive discussion of the key changes heading the delegates way – for their industry, their organisation, their department ... including ‘What could possibly go wrong?’ and mitigating actions.

PART 2: WHY 88% OF CHANGE FAILS

Exploration of each of the ten reasons why change fails.

1. People don't like change.
2. Lack of clarity regarding what we are trying to achieve and why
3. The implications are not fully understood
4. Obsession with process over outcomes
5. Inertia and complacency
6. The initiative is set up to fail
7. Poor communications and disingenuous stakeholder engagement
8. We forget that emotions trump logic every time
9. A change-averse culture
10. Leadership doesn't stay the course
